

VACANCY NOTICE:

Teacher of the Deaf/Hard of Hearing

This is a full time itinerant position covering six (6) school districts in Sheboygan County, Wisconsin. The employer is CESA 7, a consortium of 38 school districts in northeast Wisconsin.

Job Summary:

The Teacher of the Deaf/Hard of Hearing assists in developing language acquisition and communication skills to facilitate the personal, social, and intellectual development of Deaf and Hard of Hearing students.

Job Functions:

- Plans instruction as needed per Individual Education Programs (IEPs).
- Teaches deaf and hard-of-hearing students.
- Consults with parents, other professionals, agencies, and support staff regarding student educational needs.
- In-services parents, teachers, students, and aides on various issues regarding working with children who have a hearing loss.
- Employs amplification devices.
- Meets with parents, teachers, other professionals, and students to provide information and support regarding hearing loss.
- Records student progress and other data as required per IEPs and school monitoring procedures.
- Develop appropriate IEP goals based on data and the educational needs of the child.

Salary & Benefits: Generous salary contingent on education and experience. Benefits includes Retirement (some of the most generous in the country), Health Insurance, Long Term Disability and more.

Contact Information

Nissan Bar-Lev, Director of Special Education, CESA 7

Email: nbarlev@mac.com

Cell: (414) 460-4777