

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE:	Director of Advocacy & Community Engagement
REPORTS TO:	Executive Director
STATUS:	Exempt, Full Time
ANNUAL SALARY:	$70,000-75,000

SUMMARY

As the Director of Advocacy and Community Engagement, you provide direct client services daily as an advocate. Working with department staff, you oversee day-to-day operations and provide essential structure, direction, and support. Collaborating with other department leaders, you contribute to the overall success of the organization. Working closely with the Executive Director, you develop strategies for success in program operations, networking, fiscal management, and policy development.

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES

WITH DIRECTOR'S GUIDANCE & APPROVAL:

DIRECT SERVICE RESPONSIBILITIES:

COMPLIANCE & PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

- Uphold the standards of Deaf Community Services (DCS) in alignment with its mission, guiding principles, and service quality expectations.
- Maintain familiarity with relevant Federal, State, and County laws and regulations, including ADA, HIPAA, mandated reporting, confidentiality, and professional ethics.
- Attend required meetings and trainings, including staff meetings, county meetings, team meetings, and mandated trainings.
- Contribute to maintaining a welcoming, professional, and safe office environment.

DIRECT CLIENT SERVICES

- Conduct intake assessments and provide ongoing case management services.
- Utilize Salesforce for client intake and case notes to ensure cross department tracking and efficiency.
- Evaluate client needs and provide appropriate advocacy, referrals, and resources.
- Maintain accurate and timely documentation, including case notes, reports, follow ups and outcome tracking for quality assurance and program evaluation.
- Empower clients through education, self-advocacy support, workshops and confidence-building.
- Deliver direct advocacy in various systems, including Social Security, immigration, housing, medical/Medicare, education/IEPs, and consumer affairs.

- Accompany clients to off-site appointments as needed to provide advocacy and communication support.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES:

Operational Management: Provide structure and direction for the entire department, ensuring each staff member understands their role and contribution to organizational objectives. Utilize staff's job descriptions, department policies, and DCS policies to establish clear expectations, goals, tasks, and timelines. Oversee and monitor progress; assess barriers to success and how to overcome them. Provide regular constructive feedback on work performance and guidance for professional development. Fully understand and be able to accurately perform the roles, responsibilities and duties of each position in the department in order to best provide support to staff or conduct the required duties as needed. Always adhere to proper processes of documentation.

Interpersonal Management: Support staff in navigating interpersonal growth and challenges in the workplace. This involves being a source of guidance, coaching staff in developing effective communication skills, conflict resolution strategies, and individual wellness. Responsible for reframing challenges, facilitating open dialogue, and exploring solutions among team members. Foster a sense of shared purpose by ensuring staff understand and are committed to the department's role in advancing organizational goals. By setting an example of grounded professionalism and emotional maturity, managers serve as leaders, guiding their staff through interpersonal challenges with wisdom and integrity. Always adhere to proper processes of documentation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITIES:

Administrative Organizational Leadership

This role is also part of the Leadership Team within DCS, which consists of all department managers and directors, alongside the Executive Director and Executive Assistant. The Leadership Team at DCS supports each department's goals, collaborating to align initiatives and maintaining cohesion in pursuit of the organization-wide mission. Through this dual focus on departmental leadership and organizational alignment, managers drive both department staff performance and the broader mission of DCS.

Administrative Strategic Collaboration:

Actively works directly with the Executive Director collaboratively to develop and implement strategies for success by continually analyzing program operations, staffing, networking, financials, and budgets (donors, sponsors, grants), contracts, as well as developing statistics, reports, marketing strategies, and refining or restructuring policies and practices.

Administrative Bridge:

Actively connect the Executive Director's collaborative strategies with departmental operations in a continuous facilitation of back-and-forth flow. This means translating organizational strategies to department staff by explaining and guiding tasks, structures and procedures, while then also reporting observations of department operations back to the Executive Director in order to collaboratively assess alignment, stability, and opportunities for growth.

Administrative Data, Reporting & Contract Compliance:

- Conduct program assessments and track data to monitor trends and outcomes effectively.
- Analyze data and refine program approaches to maximize success.
- Prepare comprehensive financial reports monitoring budgets, sponsorships, donations, and fundraising efforts.
- Prepare detailed quarterly reports and program highlights for board meetings.
- Prepare reports and program highlights for DSS reports.
- Ensure staff adherence to case management and compliance standards throughout service delivery.
- Oversee organization and checks of inventory and supplies for the department

Administrative Representation & Outreach:

Professionally represent DCS and the Deaf community at relevant meetings and events as exhibitors, presenters, guest speakers, or general representatives. Lead public awareness efforts to enhance understanding of Deaf culture and its diversity among hearing individuals and organizations. Manage, delegate, and collaborate with department staff to assess, coordinate, and implement successful community workshops. Proactively maintain a strong, healthy network while strategizing the expansion of partnerships and resources with:

- Donors, sponsors, and fundraising entities
- Schools, districts, educators, and key stakeholders
- Hospitals, doctors' offices, medical boards, medical groups, doctors, nurses, EMTs, fire departments, police departments, and other local, state, and federal agencies
- Local businesses and community organizations
- Other organizations, agencies, businesses, or relevant individuals
