

Sterling Classical School

Job Description – High School ASL Teacher

Sterling is looking for a individual to serve as the High School ASL Teacher and be responsible for passionately providing instruction in the field of American Sign Language, promoting student progress, and promoting and managing a safe, positive classroom environment. We are looking for an experienced and qualified individual to teach ASL I, II and III in Christian, private school setting.

This position is for the 2021-2022 school year. It is preferred that the candidate have experience in the classroom and have a working knowledge or be willing to familiarize themselves with that of a classical, Christian, college-preparatory curriculum. This is a part-time position (2-3 hours a week). Interested candidates should respond to this post with a resume and letter of interest, Attention: Terry McKinney/tmckinney@sterlingclassicalschoo.com. Interested candidates may also respond to this post with questions.