About Us

Mill Neck Family of Organizations includes Mill Neck Foundation, Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf, Mill Neck Services, Mill Neck Interpreter Service, and Lutheran Friends of the Deaf.

We're dedicated to creating a world where Deaf and Hard of Hearing individuals are included, empowered, and celebrated as equals — through education, sign language, employment, audiology, and habilitation services.

If you're passionate about inclusion, equality, and community, we'd love to have you join our team!

What You'll Do

- Safely transport adults with developmental disabilities between their homes (Nassau & Suffolk Counties) and our Mill Neck campus for the Day Habilitation program.
- Plan efficient routes and adjust for traffic or weather using GPS tools.
- Build friendly, respectful relationships with passengers.
- Keep the agency vehicle clean, fueled, and in safe working condition.
- Record mileage, pick-up, and drop-off times accurately.
- Follow all OPWDD rules and safety regulations.

Required:

- Clean, valid New York State Driver's License
- Strong communication skills and professional demeanor
- Knowledge of American Sign Language (ASL) or willingness to learn

Preferred:

- Experience working with adults with developmental disabilities
- CPR & First Aid certification

Why You'll Love Working Here

- Be part of a mission-driven organization making a real impact.
- Supportive, inclusive team environment.
- Training and opportunities to learn ASL.
