

Teacher of American Sign Language

Job Description:

Cambridge School is looking for an enthusiastic and dedicated ASL teacher who will work with students of various ages, helping them develop proficiency in American Sign Language. The ideal candidate will be skilled in ASL communication, possess a deep understanding of Deaf culture, and have experience teaching ASL to diverse learners.

Job Responsibilities:

- Teach American Sign Language to students of varying levels (beginner to advanced).
- Develop and implement lesson plans that accommodate different learning styles.
- Create a supportive classroom environment that encourages student participation and growth.
- Assess students' progress and provide feedback to ensure continuous improvement.
- Foster an understanding and appreciation of Deaf culture and history.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in ASL, Education, or related field.
- ASL proficiency .
- Teaching certification (or eligibility) is a plus.

Cambridge School is an independent K-12 special education school for children who have been diagnosed with language-based learning differences — such as dyslexia, dysgraphia, ADHD and executive function challenges, among others.

Interested candidate please send your resume to: egonzales@thecambridgeschool.org

Cambridge School

LEARN
Where Children Who Learn Differently Thrive®

Cambridge School is an independent K-12 special education school for children who have been diagnosed with language-based learning disabilities — such as dyslexia, dysgraphia, auditory processing disorder, ADHD and executive function challenges, among others.

FIERCELY

609.730.9553

100 STRAUBE CENTER BLVD., PENNINGTON, NJ 08534 | THECAMBRIGESCHOOL.ORG