

High School American Sign Language (ASL) Teacher

The Nora School
955 Sligo Avenue
Silver Spring, MD 20910

We are seeking a dynamic, enthusiastic American Sign Language teacher to teach one or two classes of ASL to a small class of interested high school students.

The teacher will design and conduct one or two classes for beginning or second year of ASL high school learners. Each class meets in person for 45 minutes on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at a time to be determined, and on Wednesday mornings for a half an hour. The School Year begins August 2026 and ends June 2027.

The Nora School is a small, progressive high school located in Silver Spring, MD committed to working with bright students who think differently. Small class size, experiential learning, a nurturing and supportive community, and freedom to design your curriculum, allow us to push the edge of traditional education into the revolutionary. Students come to The Nora School seeking more personal connections in a lower pressure environment, yet with a challenging college-preparatory curriculum, The Nora School is a supportive and accepting environment for teachers to collaborate with each other and offer and accept guidance in professional development. Pay is competitive and commensurate with experience.

Candidates must have a Bachelor's degree, and a willingness to support students with different learning styles and accommodations.

Please submit a cover letter of interest and a resume to the Head of School, Mara Y. Nicastro via email: mara@noraschool.org.

Please see our website at <https://noraschool.org/> for more information about our school.

Salary for one class: $15,000

Salary for two classes: $30,000
